NEWS RELEASE

DATE: June 24, 2022

FROM: Kansas Sheriffs Association
Executive Director Sheriff Sandy Horton

SUBJECT: Scholarship Awards

Each year the Kansas Sheriffs Association awards up to $17,000 worth of educational scholarships to eligible members or family members. The eight members Scholarship Committee, chaired by Logan County Sheriff Pat Parsons, receive the written applications, and conduct interviews with all applicants. This year fifteen $1,000 awards were issued and one $2,000 Sheriff Matt Samuels Award.

Sheriff Samuels was killed in the line of duty on January 19th, 2005, and shortly after that, this scholarship was established in his honor. This year there were 27 scholarship applications to be considered.

Winning one of the $1,000 scholarships for 2022 is Logan Rugg. Logan is currently attending Fort Hays State University. His application was sponsored by his Father, Sheriff's Sergeant Justin Rugg.

The Kansas Sheriffs Association wishes Logan our best for his educational future.
